Big first half propels Rockford boys basketball team to 69-51 victory over Grandville on Tuesday

Matt Gajtka | mgajtka@mlive.com, January 30, 2013 12:03 a.m.

Chase Fairchild scored a game-high 19 points and Rob Holmes recorded a double-double, giving Rockford enough firepower for an OK Red win.

Rockford (9-4, 3-1 OK Red) scored 28 points in the second quarter and led 43-26 at halftime. In addition to his 13 points, Holmes paced the Rams' rebounding effort with 10 of the team's 37 boards.

Holmes also spearheaded Rockford's advantage at the free-throw line, as all of his points came via the foul shot. The Rams went 33 for 43 in that category, while Grandville made 13 of 22.

Grandville's Collin Telman netted 16 points of his own and buried a trio of 3-pointers in the game, matching Fairchild's total. The Bulldogs (2-10, 0-4) had Joey Lanning chip in 10 points.

Rockford's Casey Watters, who made all seven foul shots he attempted, netted 10 as well. The Rams head to Holland West Ottawa on Friday.

Grandville hosts Class A state-ranked East Kentwood (12-1) next, also on Friday.
