Nathan Woznick couldn't miss Friday night.

Woznick, who was 5 of 5 from the 3-point line in the first quarter, nailed eight 3-pointers and finished with 27 points in Rockford's 73-32 win over host Grandville in boys basketball.

"He had a hot hand and was off the charts," Grandville coach Sam Cornett said. "It was quite the shooting clinic he put on. We knew he was a good shooter, but we didn't know it was anything like that. I think we'll guard him better next time."

Brad Fischer of Rockford added 11 points, and Josh Olson had six.

Grandville's Alex Bischoff scored 10 points, and Noah Johnson chipped in five.

"It's unreal how teams come into our gym and shoot like that," Cornett said. We couldn't even hit the side of a barn."

Rockford (3-6) hosts Holland West Ottawa at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, while Grandville (0-8) visits East Kentwood.
